Take measures in line with her new Companies regulatory framework to establish public central registers of company beneficial ownership information.
Ensure that international and domestic law enforcement agencies have full and effective access to beneficial ownership information for companies and other legal entities registered within their jurisdiction.
Kenya welcomes the establishment of transparent central registers of foreign and local companies bidding on public contracts and buying property, and will pursue options for taking similar action.
Deploy public-private information sharing partnerships to bring together governments, law enforcement, regulators and the financial sector to detect, prevent and disrupt money laundering linked to corruption.
Strengthening her asset recovery legislation and to strengthening capacities to undertake civil assets recovery.
Kenya supports the development of internationally-endorsed guidelines for the transparent and

accountable management of returned stolen assets.
Kenya supports the development of common principles governing the payment of compensation to the countries affected, to ensure that such payments are made safely, fairly and in a transparent manner.
Kenya supports the setting up of international mechanisms, to facilitate better coordination of anti-corruption law enforcement efforts and welcomes the establishment of an International Anti-Corruption Law Enforcement Coordination Centre and will work closely and cooperate with it and relevant international organizations. To that end, Kenya offers to host the African Anti-Corruption Law Enforcement Coordination Centre.
